CCPC ACTIVITY REPORT: GUEST LECTURE ON PREPARATION FOR COMPETITIVE EXAMS

Introduction

On 10-12-2024, The Career Counselling and Placement Cell of Government College Haripurdhara organised a session titled "Developing Proficiency for Competitive Exams". The session was led by Ms. Tanaya Thakur, an Assistant Professor at Shoolini University, Solan. It aimed to guide students in preparing for various government exams and provide strategies to excel in their chosen fields.

Objective

The purpose of the session was to familiarise students with different competitive exams suited to their educational backgrounds and aspirations. It also aimed to equip them with effective preparation techniques and encourage a disciplined approach to achieving their career goals.

Proceedings of the Session

The speaker commenced the session by introducing students to the various competitive exams they could consider, such as state government exams, banking exams, teaching eligibility tests like TET and CTET, NET, SET and civil services exams including UPSC and HPPSC. She explained how students could identify the exams that best suited their educational background and career interests.

The speaker shared practical advice on preparing for these exams, emphasising the importance of reliable study resources like NCERT books, newspapers, and online platforms offering free mock tests. She also stressed the significance of staying updated with current affairs by regularly reading newspapers such as The Hindu and Indian Express. Additionally, she highlighted the role of time management and maintaining a daily study routine to ensure effective preparation.

Throughout the session, the speaker underscored the value of discipline and persistence. She encouraged students to adopt a structured lifestyle, which she described as a crucial factor in achieving success in competitive exams. The lecture was interactive, and ended with a vote of thanks by the Officiating Principal.

Conclusion

The session was well-received and left students feeling confident and motivated. They appreciated the practical tips and expressed satisfaction with the valuable guidance provided. The Career Counselling and Placement Cell plans to conduct similar sessions in the future to help students explore career opportunities and prepare effectively for their professional journeys.
